

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election and classify it as "news" is outrageous. It's a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.